

MEETINGS TO DISCUSS YOORALLA'S EBA OFFER

All HACSU members must attend, staff on shift will be released on paid time release.

HACSU is seeking feedback from all members on this offer and therefore require ALL members to attend meetings as scheduled. Yooralla have agreed that staff on shift will be released on paid time release for 2 hours. Employees who will be on shift but wish to attend the meeting must notify their manager 5 working days* prior to the scheduled meeting of their intention to attend, so that backfill can be organised.

These meetings are important opportunities for the union to meet with members regarding the EBA offer that Yooralla has put forward. The union must be advised by members before any further action can be taken to reach an agreement. All members must attend. Members are encouraged to bring along your colleagues who can join the union at the event.

HACSU will provide delicious refreshments at each meeting

* Please note that HACSU has confirmed Yooralla recognise that 7 days per week are disability services working days.
